
Hazelwood mine to conduct aerial weed spraying

Aerial spraying will be undertaken in the Hazelwood mine to assist in removing self-sown vegetation on the walls of the worked out coal batters and floor of the mine. Work is planned for the weekend of Saturday 15 and Sunday 16 September, weather permitting.

The process of using a helicopter to spray hard to access vegetation is commonly used in plantations and on farms.

For more information contact 5135 5000.

www.engie.com.au